

Certificate in

Christian Mentoring & Coaching

1st-5th NOV 2010

£250 (Including all materials and refreshments)

£345 (Including all materials, meals, refreshments and accommodation in single study bedroom)

Bookings : To obtain an application form please contact Helen Phipps on 01246 584216 or email postgrad@cliffcollege.ac.uk

"I sense that our world needs a mentorship revolution. The principles of mentorship are missing in so many relationships that might flourish if they were embraced"
(Mentee, late 20's)

"Invest in a few for the sake of the many"
(Leighton Ford, Arrow Leadership Programme)

Cliff College is very excited to announce its first Mentoring and Coaching Course, to be held this autumn. It will be aimed at people who want to build intentional, discipling relationships within the local church and beyond. The teaching during the week, by Sharon Prior and Paul Wilcox, both of whom are experienced mentors, will focus on the following subjects:

There will also be plenty of time during the week, through seminars, discussion groups and generally hanging out with each other, to share stories and swap ideas about what has worked and what hasn't from your own experiences.

If you have any specific questions, please don't hesitate to get in touch. This course serves as an entry qualification to the Postgraduate Certificate in Christian Mentoring and Coaching at Cliff College.

"Mentoring is gently pushing people out of their comfort zones when faith has become too safe"

(Andy Frost, Share Jesus International)

"Mentoring is about seeing potential in people and helping them to grow in their skills and gifts"

(Ruth Hassall, CPAS)

- The biblical basis of mentoring
- Using mentoring in discipleship
- Definitions of different helping roles
- Key skills in mentoring
- The spirituality of the Mentor
- Mentoring in the local church