Coming Untangled

Forsaking Frenetic
For Focused

We want to live full, but not frantic, lives. We desire to be present to the moment and the people in our lives. But we are too often pulled by more commitments than we can manage. Wherever we are, part of us is often somewhere else.

This retreat opens to space for listening to God about our entangled lives. For twenty-four hours, Dr. Carla Waterman will lead us through a creative guided retreat based on Psalm 90, inviting us to engage God and our lives with our minds, hearts and hands as we identify our various commitments. Personal time will be offered to explore these commitments, and to listen to our loving Father speak peace to his chaos-prone children.

“Let the beauty of the Lord our God rest upon us, and establish thou the work of our hand” ((Psalm 90:17).

The retreat runs from Sunday 1st – Monday 2nd June. Bookings to be received by February 1st 2014

It costs £90 per person which includes dinner, bed, breakfast and lunch, all materials for the conference, and use of the hotel’s amazing facilities. It takes place in the beautiful Ravenhall hotel, Scarborough (Ravenhall.co.uk) perched on the cliffs with amazing sea views, and large grounds to explore. The hotel offers:

- 100 acres of award-winning grounds and battlements and our own challenging 9-hole cliff-top links golf course on site.
- Extensive sports and leisure facilities including: heated indoor swimming pool, sauna, games room, two all weather tennis courts, putting green, croquet lawn, bowls, restaurant.
- Panorama Restaurant - a whole new dining experience overlooking probably the finest views in Yorkshire

The retreat leader is Dr Carla Waterman.

Dr. Carla Waterman has been a Christian formation professor for twenty years. Earning her Ph.D. at Cornell University in New York, she has been on the faculties of Wheaton College and Northern Seminary, and was a founding faculty member of the Robert E. Webber Institute for Worship Studies, a graduate institution for church musicians desiring a theological doctorate.

Carla delights in leading spiritual retreats, and has been a frequent visitor to the UK in this capacity since 1990. She has taught with Leanne Payne’s Pastoral Care Ministries Schools, with Living Waters UK, and with InnerCHANGE, a Christian Order Among the Poor.

Carla Waterman is the author of Songs of Assent, an extended meditation on receptivity to God. She is based out of Canterbury Retreat Center in Orlando, Florida, and a frequent blogger at www.inthekingdominstitute.org. She has recently completed her novitiate to become a companion in the Northumbria Community.

Carla resides with her husband of 32 years and her two-year old rescue puppy, Samwise. She also enjoys the occasional windstorms produced by her twenty-one year old son when he blows into town.
